Peab builds the extension of Helsingborg Hospital

Peab has been commissioned to build the first stage of a new medical building at Helsingborg Hospital. The customer is Region Skåne and the contract is worth SEK 136 million.

The project is a traditional contract for the framework of two stories, the groundwork and a shelter. The work is expected to be completed at the end of 2019.

The project will be order registered in the third quarter of 2018.
